Youth Climbing Team

Team Boulders is a nationally competitive climbing team for youth ages 8 to 18. Practices are held twice a week and lead by Head Coach Matthew Jimenez. The team competes at the local, regional, divisional, and national levels. Each child competes against other climbers in their age group in different events depending on whether it is sport season (winter-spring) or bouldering season (summer-fall). Climbing is also a very exciting spectator sport! So basically for a fun sport that is very social, very exciting and works most of the muscles in the body especially the mind; climbing is at the top of the list.

Cost:

- $80/mo
- Discounts for multiple children.
- Team members must also have their own Membership , or be on a Family Membership .

Time:

- The Team practices 2 times a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays 5pm-8pm.

We have certified BSA counselors that offer the Climbing and Rappelling classes and certifications for Boy Scouts of America. All you have to do is call and book a time for your Boy Scout group to come in and get certified.

- $15 extra per scout for merit badge instruction. (ie.: A lock-in is $450 minimum and that covers up to 20 climbers. Lets say your group has 30 climbers, 15 of which are getting the climbing merit badge. The climbing alone for 20 is covered in the price of the lock in, add $22 each for the 10 remaining. Also add $15 for each scout getting the merit badge instruction.)

Many Troops combine certification with a Boulders Lock-In for a fun and productive overnight activity!
